New state pandemic rules restrict holiday gatherings

> If we don't act now, thousands more will die, and our hospitals will continue to be overwhelmed.

Thanksgiving gatherings next week will be limited to two households according to new restrictions announced by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS).

Health department officials issued a new emergency order Sunday that became effective yesterday. There is now a three-week pause targeting indoor social gatherings and other group activities in an effort to curb rapidly rising COVID-19 infection rates. In addition, bars and restaurants have been limited to outdoor dining, carry-out and delivery only.

Gyms will remain open for individual exercise with strict safety measures in place. Casinos, movie theaters and group exercise classes will be closed. Professional and college sports meeting extraordinary standards for risk mitigation may continue without spectators, however all other organized sports must stop. Colleges and high schools may proceed with remote learning, but must end in-person classes, according to the new orders.

Officials strongly urged families to choose a single other household to interact with over the next three weeks, including the Thanksgiving holiday.

"In the spring, we listened to public health experts, stomped the curve, and saved thousands of lives together. Now, we must channel that same energy and join forces again to protect our families, frontline workers and small businesses," said Gov. Gretchen Whitmer. "Right now, there are thousands of cases a day and hundreds of deaths a week in Michigan, and the number is growing. If we don't act now, thousands more will die, and our hospitals will continue to be overwhelmed. We can get through this together by listening to health experts once again and taking action right now to slow the spread of this deadly virus."

"Indoor gatherings are the greatest source of spread, and sharply limiting them is our focus," said MDHHS Director Robert Gordon. "The order is targeted and temporary, but a terrible loss of life will be forever unless we act. By coming together today, we can save thousands of lives."

The new restriction is not a blanket stay-home action like the one issued in the spring. This order leaves open work that cannot be performed from home, including for manufacturing, construction and health occupations. Outdoor gatherings, outdoor dining and parks remain open. Individualized activities with distancing and face masks are still allowed: retail shopping; public transit; restaurant takeout; personal-care services such as haircuts, by appointment; and individualized exercise at a gym, with extra spacing between machines.

Michigan has seen fewer outbreaks associated with elementary and middle schools, and younger children are most in need of in-person instruction. In-person K-8 schooling may

Clerk's proposal prompts heated board discussion

> I would remind everyone that there is always another side in every situation.

An exceptionally heated discussion of a proposal for approval of an employment contract ended with withdrawal of the motion in Sumpter Township last week.

During a board of trustees workshop preceding the regular meeting Nov. 10, Township Clerk Esther Hurst proposed an agreement to employ current Deputy Supervisor Karen Armatis as a contract employee in the clerk's office for 16 to 20 hours per week, or as needed, at a rate of $27 per hour. The agreement would be for six months, according to Hurst's request.

The proposal was strongly criticized by Treasurer Kenneth Bednark, who appeared at his first official meeting in more than a year and union employees Anna Winter and Roxanne Riddell. Winter questioned the legitimacy of the proposal and said she was concerned that the agreement would be in violation of the current union contract which clearly specifies the status of employee "floaters" and cross training of employees. She noted that a previous auditor's report noted that the clerk's office was operated with two employees.

"If another person is hired in the clerk's office I suggest a union person," she said. She also said that when she asked for help in the water department as she was exceptionally busy, she was told by the finance director that the township was in a hiring freeze and that there was no money for additional help.

Her opinion was seconded by Riddell who said she believed the request to employ Armatis was an effort to subvert the will of the people expressed in the recent election when current Supervisor John Morgan was defeated by Tim Bowman. Armatis works for Morgan.

"Why bring a person in because during the election they lost their job. The people voted, why circumvent the people's vote? Have the new people even been asked if they want her?"

Hurst explained that currently Armatis is the point person on at least one township lawsuit and is crucial in locating information and history for the township attorneys. She added that currently Armatis is on loan to her office to help with the workload and that she has also been loaned to the treasurer's office when that office was in a crisis and needed help.

Hurst said this was a temporary contract for six months and after prompting reluctantly recounted that Bowman, accompanied by his son and Bednark, visited her office immediately after the election with a list of all the township employees who were to be fired. She said that Bednark told her that "the cancer would be removed" from the township.

"He is not the new supervisor," she said. "Why did Bowman have Bednark talk to me instead of himself?"

Tempers continued to flare during the emotional and somewhat raucous meeting as Bednark repeatedly interjected his demand to speak and read a prepared statement during the workshop.

At one point, Morgan repeatedly banged the gavel and loudly declared "We will not lose control of this meeting" as an audience of supporters of the newly-elected officials either applauded or jeered during comments.

Bednark said that Hurst's statements were untrue and that he had hoped the board meeting would be a celebration thanking the outgoing officials for their years of service but then launched into an attack on both Morgan and Armatis.

Northville - Plymouth

Northville, Plymouth set Holiday Greens markets

The highly anticipated Northville Holiday Greens and Winter Market will take place this year, despite the current pandemic.

The annual event, sponsored by the Northville Chamber of Commerce, will be slightly revamped and moved to a new location this year, organizers said. This year, the sale will take place from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 21 and from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 22

The market will move to the corner of Seven Mile Road and Center Street, across from Northville Downs. Organizers said this larger space will allow more local farmers, growers and vendors to participate. Greens vendors will be selling traditional holiday wreaths, roping, décor, centerpieces, and porch pots while the "Best of the Best" Northville Farmers Market Vendors will also be on hand. Vendors will be selling sweets including cookies, cakes and breads, mushrooms, dog treats, coffee and hot chocolate, French breads, Polish items and food, beef, Kettle Corn, and much more.

Parking will be available onsite or across the street at Northville Downs.

> The health and safety of all attendees, vendors and chamber staff members will be a priority and the sale will be an open-air market.

The health and safety of all attendees, vendors and chamber staff members will be a priority and the sale will be an open-air market and all COVID-19 guidelines will be followed. Visitors will be required to stay 6-feet apart, touching of the products should be limited and face masks are strongly encouraged within the sale area.

Dogs will not be allowed in this new venue and visitors are asked not to consume food or beverages on site and not to linger or socialize.

In Plymouth, the Holiday Green's Market is planned from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 28 in downtown Plymouth at The Gathering, located off Penniman Avenue directly across from Kellogg Park.

The Green's Market will include some of the favorite Plymouth Farmers Market vendors, providing opportunities to shop for a variety of holiday greens, crafts, baked goods and seasonal treats.

The Walk of Trees display in Kellogg Park will also be complete for visitors and Nov. 28 is also Small Business Saturday, to help encourage holiday shopping at local merchants throughout the downtown area.

Salute

Veterans' banner program flying high in Northville

Veterans are being honored with banners on light poles throughout downtown Northville for the month of November.

The Northville Chamber of Commerce instituted the tribute in an effort to allow the community to recognize the service and sacrifices veterans made as members of the United States Armed Forces during wars and conflicts.

In tandem with the banners, stories of the veterans can be found on the chamber website. Veterans fought on battlefields and assisted in other ways during the war effort - from the Civil War and World War I, World War II through Vietnam and recent conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. A total of 137 veterans are listed on the website.

"It's fitting that these men and women in uniform are being honored this month with Veterans' Day on Nov. 11. The program also ran in May 2020 with Memorial Day as a touchstone holiday, yet the pandemic lockdown kept many people from viewing the banners at that time," a chamber spokesperson said.

There are currently 24 Civil War veterans buried in the Oakwood Cemetery, also called the Cady Street Cemetery who were highlighted on the Cemetery Tour during the Heritage/Victorian days in Northville this year. There are hundreds of veterans buried at the Northville Rural Hill Cemetery, according to the city website.

City hall is open but health restrictions continue in effect

While Northville City Hall is open, residents and citizens are encouraged to conduct business online and by phone, email, regular mail and by using the drop box in the vestibule or circular drive. These actions will help minimize the risk of catching or spreading COVID-19 in an indoor building, officials said. Inside city hall, masks must be worn; a mask will be provided to anyone who does not have one. Plexiglas now surrounds the reception desk and visitors are advised to keep 6 feet apart from others. Place markers have been installed on the floor in the front lobby to guide social distancing. The public is asked to refrain from using the city hall restrooms and the drinking fountain is not in service.

The elevator is in use but officials urge visitors to use the amenity only with those in their family or alone. More information about city services is available from the city manager's office at (248) 449-9905 or send an email to info@ci.northville.mi.us.

Emergency notifications from Nixle will also be posted to Facebook, officials said

Planning commissioners OK 2-story structure

Canton Township may soon have something more to smile about following unanimous planning commission approval of a new building at the site of a former United Auto Workers office space.

The new structure, proposed by Aaron Havens, owner of Havens Ortohodontics, would be two stories and include other businesses. Havens told the commissioners his practice would anchor the site but that he had no other specific businesses in the other spaces as yet, although there were ongoing negotiations with potential tenants.

The new building would be larger than the current structure at Canton Center and Joy Road on the border of Canton and Plymouth. The union building will be demolished and the new structure will also offer office space for businesses on the second floor with possible food service locations like bakeries, coffee shops or restaurants on the first floor.

> "The height of the proposed building exceeds the current limit of 30 feet in the area.

Havens told the commissioners that he was not looking for a strip mall type of development. He said his priority was for his own offices.

Commissioners commented that the proximity to the Plymouth Canton Educational Park could present traffic issues although the location could be good for several types of businesses should they be located at the site.

The height of the proposed building exceeds the current limit of 30 feet in the area, which also caused some discussion among the planning commissioners. The new structure, at 35 feet, would be one of the tallest in the township, excepting the nearby high schools.

Commissioners unanimously approved the project following their discussion. The project will now go before the members of the township board of trustees for review and a decision.

Annual Canton Thanksgiving Turkey Trot goes virtual for 2020

The Thanksgiving holiday tradition in Canton Township will not be deterred but a bit altered by the ongoing pandemic.

Runners and walkers can keep the township family Thanksgiving tradition alive by participating in the 18th Annual Turkey Trot For a Cause virtual event. Registration is now open and runners/walkers can take to their neighborhoods, parks, and trails any time from Nov. 19-26 to support the Epilepsy Foundation of Michigan.

All ages are encouraged to join in the fight against epilepsy by registering for the 5K race or 1-mile fun run that will benefit the Epilepsy Foundation of Michigan, an organization dedicated to empowering individuals with seizure disorders.

"Canton's Turkey Trot has become a real tradition for many families," said Ann-Marie Carravallah, Canton Township recreation coordinator. "Although we won't be able to host an in-person race this year, we hope that families will still take part in our virtual event to continue to support a great cause,"

This year, the participant fee is $25 for the 5K and $15 for the 1-Mile Fun Run. To participate, first register online at csc.canton-mi.org. Then, run or walk any time from Nov. 19-26 and watch for the raffle drawings Nov. 21 and 25 to win a new pair of Brooks shoes on the Canton Sports Center Facebook page @CantonSportsCenter. Feel free to submit unofficial race times at the racing link online at csc.canton-mi.org or share photos on the township Facebook page.

Race registration and donation link will stay open through Thanksgiving Day. This year, bib shirt pickup will take place at Kickers Sports Bar and Grill in the Canton Sports Center, located at 46555 Michigan Ave. Race pickup hours are 4 until 10 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20, and from noon until 9 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 21. Curbside pickup is available by calling (734) 483-5600.

In addition, dine-in/carry-out is available at Kickers, to raise additional funds for the cause, as a portion of the proceeds will also be donated to the Turkey Trot. No pickups will be available at the Summit on the Park.

The Canton Turkey Trot for a Cause started in 2003 after Justin Murray, a Canton resident, was diagnosed with epilepsy, and his parents, Michael and Terri Murray, wanted to do something to help in the fight against the disease. Murray has been seizure-free since his brain surgery in 2007 to remove a growth that was causing the seizures. To date, Canton's Turkey Trot has raised more than $200,000 during the past 18 years.

For more information, contact the Canton Sports Center at (734) 483-5600 or visit csc.canton-mi.org.

NAACP honors Westland police

The Westland Police Department was recently honored by the NAACP with a Community Partner Award.

Officials from the organization said during the presentation that the NAACP award was in recognition of the community service, commitment to diversity and outreach demonstrated by the Westland Police Department.

"They are standing as a vanguard and an example to the other departments in the area," said John Hearn, local NAACP branch second vice president.

> It is so important that the community has confidence in their This is a philosophy that I am committed to and we will continue to build upon.

"On behalf of the City of Westland Police Department, I am truly honored to have accepted this award," Police Chief Jeff Jedrusik said in a statement. "Our police department has come a long way. We have developed a strong partnership with the (Western Wayne) NAACP and both local and regional community organizations.

"Our department recognizes the need to continually build community trust and transparency. It is so important that the community has confidence in their police department. This is a philosophy that I am committed to and we will continue to build upon."

In the past year, the Westland Police Department fired an officer due to baton use during an arrest of a man with autism and initiated a new online dashboard with arrest and citation data and opened a continued dialogue between police officials and NAACP members.

It's the fuzz

Again this year, Wayne Police Department officers will be participating in Movember, an effort to raise awareness and funding to support men's health. During the month of November, men are encouraged to grow mustaches (and beards as some have chosen) to raise awareness for the effort. The Movember Foundation focuses on issues such as prostate cancer, testicular cancer, suicide prevention, and mental health. The Movember campaign helps remind police officers that as they have a duty to protect the community, they also have a duty to protect their own health, according to a prepared statement. "We owe it to our friends and family to make our own health a priority," the Facebook post continued. Anyone from the community can donate to the cause, by clicking on the blue "Donate to Team" button at https://moteam.co/wayne-pd. Officers also supplied a photo of previous Movember efforts without the currently required masks. Movember began in 2003 in Australia when 30 mates paid $10 to grow a mo-stache and dedicated the money to men's health. By 2006, an official charity had been established and in 2007, 134,171 people around the world participated and earned $21.5 million. The charity now funds 1,000 men's health programs and has donated $730 million to fund significant breakthroughs in scientific research.

ROMULUS

Tribute

Romulus cemetery to join Wreaths Across America

Members of the Romulus VFW will once again participate in the national Wreaths Across America project set for noon Dec. 19 at Romulus Memorial Cemetery.

The national effort is a formal remembrance and tribute to the men and women who sacrificed their lives in service to their country. Volunteers will place remembrance wreaths on veteran's graves during the ceremony.

Funding is still needed for the project and wreaths can be purchased at https://bit.ly/2TTs4Hy and donations for the project, which aims to place 350 wreaths next month, are being sought. There are more than 1,500 participating locations across the country participating in the event this year.

The tribute began as a private donation from a wreath company and became a national effort in 2005. In 2006, with the help of the Civil Air Patrol and other civic organizations, simultaneous wreath-laying ceremonies took place at more than 150 locations around the country. By 2008, more than 300 locations participated in every state, Puerto Rico and 24 overseas cemeteries and more than 100,000 wreaths were placed on veterans' graves. More than 60,000 volunteers participated. And that year, Dec. 13, 2008 was unanimously voted by the US Congress as "Wreaths Across America Day".

In 2014, Wreaths Across America and its national network of volunteers laid 700,000 memorial wreaths at 1,000 locations in the United States and beyond, including ceremonies at the Pearl Harbor Memorial, as well as Bunker Hill, Valley Forge and the sites if the Sept.11 tragedies. This was accomplished with help from 2,047 sponsorship groups, corporate contributions, and donations of trucking, shipping, and thousands of helping hands. The organization goal of covering Arlington National Cemetery was met in 2014 with the placement of 226,525 wreaths.

Te wreath-laying takes place annually, on the second or third Saturday of December.

Wreaths Across America also conducts several programs to honor veterans, including the popular "Thanks a Million" campaign which distributes cards to people all over the country to give veterans a simple "thank you" for their service. WAA participates in veterans' events throughout the year, and has a veteran liaison on staff to work with local veterans organizations. WAA is committed to teaching younger generations about the value of their freedoms, and the importance of honoring those who sacrificed so much to protect those freedoms. The organization offers learning tools, interactive media projects, and opportunities for youth groups to participate in the events. They also work to create opportunities to connect "the Greatest Generation" with the "Generation of Hope", passing on inspirational stories from World War II veterans to the leaders of the future.

For more information, or to contribute or volunteer, contact the Romulus VFW at (734) 941-3030.

Graduation day

The Romulus Firefighters took extra pride this year in the recent graduation of cadet Grant Bafile who graduated from the Schoolcraft College Fire Training Institute. The firefighters sponsored Bafile as part of an effort of both the Romulus Police and Fire Departments to help mentor the next generation of leaders and public servants. A statement from the department noted that the partnership with local high schools and Schoolcraft providing dual enrollment for students is a recognition of "the need for more trade opportunities for students." The statement also offered congratulations to Bafile on his completion of the course.

Sumpter - Inkster

Homicide at restaurant investigation continues

The shooting death outside a popular Inkster restaurant last week has left city residents shaken and remains under investigation by state police detectives.

Michigan State Police troopers and officers from several police departments were called to Moe's Fish & Chicken at about 7:20 p.m. last Friday following a report of a shooting. The restaurant, a mainstay in the community, is located at Middlebelt and Rosewood in Inkster.

Officers from the Inkster, Garden City, Dearborn Heights and Westland police departments responded to the scene along with State Police Troopers.

The shooting took place at about 7:05 p.m. Nov. 13, according to police reports.

When police arrived at the scene, a crowd had gathered but was dispersed. Terrance Grantham, an Inkster resident, told police that the crowd heard the shots and the crowd left the area. He told reporters that he did see an ambulance take at least one person from the scene. He admitted that he was upset by the gunfire in the neighborhood. .

"If you can't just come to Moe's and pick up your chicken without feeling like you could possibly get gunned down, that's just crazy," he said.

"This investigation remains very fluid and no further information will be released at this time," stated a communication from the Michigan State Police.

Detectives from the Special Investigation Section are continuing to investigate the death, the statement added.

Crime ratings show Sumpter as safest small town

Sumpter Township has received a top rating for safety from AdviserSmith, a site which ranks communities according to both violent and property crime.

The ratings, published earlier this year were reprinted on the Sumpter Township Police Facebook page noting that several different sites publish a "safest" cities/towns lists based on the FBI annual crime reporting.

These lists are based on the rate of violent crimes such as murder, rape, robbery, and aggravated assault and property crimes like burglary, larceny, motor vehicle theft, and arson, per 1,000 residents. Each site has a slightly different methodology, giving different weights to the two categories to compile their lists. The most recent rankings from AdviserSmith also categorized the ratings by population; large cities, midsize cities, and small towns. Sumpter Township is evaluated in the small town rating. The AdviserSmith "crime score" is based on that methodology with a lower score equating to less crime in the community.

Sumpter ranked as the safest small town in the area based on a compilation of the violent crime rate, the property crime rate, and the overall crime score from the site. Ranked from best to worst were: Sumpter Township: 9.7 / 6.7 = 21.1; Augusta Township: 3.3 / 17.7 = 28.0; Canton Township: 9.4 / 10.8 = 28.9; Huron Township: 10.9 / 7.5 = 31.4; Brownstown Township: 10.4 / 8.8 = 32.7; Pittsfield Township: 7.1 / 14.8 = 35.1; City of Belleville: 13.3 / 15.0 = 46.7; Van Buren Township: 16.3 / 19.3 = 53.9 and the City of Romulus: 28.6 / 22.9 = 96.6

office your slogan was drain the Sumpter Swamp," he told Morgan. "You, (Morgan and Armatis) are the swamp and you are putting cronyism ahead of your duty to the community," he said. He repeatedly accused Morgan and Hurst of putting Armatis above their financial responsibility to the township and characterized Armatis as Morgan's "sidekick" for more than 25 years.

"We now need to heal the divide, the loser will be the community," Bednark said, and then launched into another blistering attack on Armatis and Hurst.

"You are putting her above the financial responsibility to the township," he repeated as part of a personal attack on Armatis.

He called the proposed agreement a 'sweetheart' deal and said that "any trustees who vote to bring her (Armatis) back are "sowing seeks of discord."

Trustee Matt Oddy commented that Hurst had been reelected and has the right to staff her office. He reminded Bednark that when his office got behind in processing payments the first person they called for help was Armatis. While Bednark heatedly denied that claim, Oddy insisted that he still had the emails attesting to the situation.

"I would remind everyone that there is always another side in every situation," he said.

Hurst offered to withdraw her proposal from consideration and it was not acted on by the board members during the official meeting which followed the workshop.

"The data we are seeing is alarming. COVID-19 is impacting every area of our state. Our healthcare systems are becoming overwhelmed, and our contact tracers cannot keep up," said Dr. Joneigh Khaldun, chief medical executive and chief deputy for health at MDHHS. "If we do not act now, we risk thousands more deaths, and even more people having long-term health consequences. The actions we are taking today are the best opportunity we have to get this virus under control."

Information around this outbreak is changing rapidly.
